Additional information

Overview

This course is equivalent to your first year of degree study and will strengthen your key business and management principles knowledge.

When you study business and management with the University of Greenwich, you will have the opportunity to pursue networking, mentoring and internship opportunities with global firms such as Apple, Barclays, Ford, Goldman Sachs, IBM, Microsoft, Northern Trust, Sony PlayStation, The Walt Disney Company, and Warner Music Group. Students will benefit from the Business School Employability Team who will support you to develop your career skills and help you network with employers.

We offer Pre-sessional English which is a 6 or 12-week extension course for those who may not yet meet the required English language standards for direct entry to our pathways.
