Additional information

Degree overview:

Our Master of Public Administration (MPA) program is designed to train you to acquire strong analytical and administrative skills, and gain the management expertise you will need to succeed in the most rewarding and demanding areas of the national economy: government, healthcare, and nonprofit administration. The program's mission is to prepare our students to become value-driven public service leaders, managers, and analysts by offering you the knowledge of roles, values, skills, and practices that will help you become competent global professionals capable of ethical, innovative, and creative leadership in public service, government, health care, and nonprofit organizations. The interdisciplinary curriculum enables you to occupy public service management and analyst positions across sectoral boundaries, as the program takes into account career and industry sector flexibility.

With a degree in Business and Finance, you'll learn business, economic, and financial theories, and develop commercial awareness of a variety of business functions and environments. Subjects include Business Administration, Business Management, Economics, Finance & Accounting, and Human Resources Management. A degree in this subject area could lead you to a career in:

- Logistics Manager
- Business Analyst
- Human Resources Manager
- Entrepreneur
- Accountant
- Financial Advisor
- Investment Advisor
- Financial Trader
- Banker
- Project or Product Manager
