Degree Overview

Our Bachelor of Marketing & Public Relations program equips you with the practical and analytical skills to proactively engage with all stakeholders and promote any business.

Our Bachelor's degree is a comprehensive degree available to study full-time over three years or part-time equivalent. You will learn foundation business skills such as accounting, management, business communication, business law, and business information technology before embarking on a range of courses which focus more specifically on the latest theories of marketing and public relations.

The University of Notre Dame Australia is proud to combine practical skills with individual-focused tuition. This ensures that every one of our graduates enters the workplace ready to thrive and succeed.

As part of your degree, you will be required to undertake 150 hours of practical experience in some of Australia's most respected and high-profile companies – these placements are a significant preparation for your life after university.

As the only integrated marketing and public relations degree in NSW, our graduates are all eligible to join the Australian Marketing Institute (AMI) and the Public Relations Institute of Australia (PRIA).
