Additional information

THE COURSE

Interior design deeply considers the kinds of relationships, activities, and habits that a space will support. In the Master in Interior & Living Design, you will collaborate with your international peers and company professionals on projects that re-invent the interior and living domains. With cultural, social, and practical concerns in mind, you will examine materials, furniture, lighting, and emerging technologies as you plan new and innovative spaces.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

The Master in Interior & Living Design aims to train a new professional figure capable of combining technical and design skills with strategic abilities: a new professional who is aware of the bond that space creates in our minds, and who is attentive to processes and timing of project management.

Careers in the interior design field are numerous and varied. Alumni of this programme are working in the home design, retail, hospitality, event planning, furniture design, and architecture sectors.

Job titles include:

- Interior designer
- Exhibition designer
- Lighting designer
- Living designer
- Space planner
