Degree Overview

Do you want a degree that provides a broad overview of the business world? The University of Notre Dame Australia's Bachelor of Business Administration will cover a wide spectrum of disciplines such as marketing, management, public relations, and human resources – a sound foundation for a career in business management and administration.

Our Bachelor of Business Administration program delivers a comprehensive and relevant curriculum that reflects the opportunities presented in an era of rapid technological change. The degree is available as a 3-year full-time or equivalent part-time course.

Compulsory areas of study include consumer behaviour, economics, business information technology, strategic management, innovation and entrepreneurship and public relations. In addition to your eight business foundation courses and five compulsory courses, you are free to choose seven electives – these range from events management to the psychology of work.

Our graduates pursue many future careers. Banking, the private sector, government administration, advertising, public utilities, management consultancies, energy companies, trade unions, accountancy firms and investment brokers are just a few of the many possibilities.
