- A GPA greater than 3.75 is $20,000 per year

Additional information

Degree Overview

Focused on the development of interdisciplinary practices that integrate studio art and additional academic disciplines, this degree is designed for the artist and entrepreneur who will create the unanticipated art forms and cultural phenomena that cannot be anticipated by traditional arts education. Often students have a strong interest in combining their art practice with such academic subjects as psychology, history, politics, and business and want to pursue a career as a professional artist or entrepreneur utilizing both creative and academic fields

Study Reasons

Take 50% of your coursework in the studio arts major and use the remaining credits to pursue another or multiple other degrees.

Combine your art practice with academic subjects such as psychology, history, politics and business.

Learn from a professional faculty and an active schedule of acclaimed artists via our Visiting Artist Lecture Series.
