Degree Overview

Specialising in risk and regulation has become much more relevant in the last decade. Regulations have changed rapidly and become even more complex, with a greater need to manage the risks associated. It is a critical aspect of the business to monitor change, understand the risks, and be adaptable to change.

Through this course you will gain deeper knowledge and practical skills in identifying, measuring and managing risks, and conducting risk analysis. You understand and achieve the current knowledge on financial regulations and ethics.
