OVERVIEW

Our Global MBA program is designed for individuals seeking to develop a global understanding of the business world. This program provides students with a general education in business administration and management, including courses in finance, marketing, operations and strategy. The program has a global focus, allowing students to study business practices and trends around the world and to develop a cross-cultural perspective. In addition to traditional courses, students will participate in practical projects and real-life case studies that allow them to apply their knowledge to real business challenges.
