Degree overview:

With your BS in Criminal Justice, you can build a career path in private sector security or law enforcement—two fields that are always growing. Pace's program equips you with a solid foundation in criminal justice and other related disciplines that give you the opportunity to concentrate on either law enforcement or courts and correction.

During a Law degree, you'll study different legal systems and cover core topics such as legal research. Subjects include Business Law, Criminal Justice, Forensic Science, Human Rights Law, International Law, and Professional Advocacy. As a Law graduate, you could work as:

- Lawyer
- Soliciter
- Criminal Litigator

- Barrister
- Paralegal
- Licenced Conveyancer
- Patent Attorney
