Additional information

Degree Overview

Working with our industry partners, students will gain an understanding of contemporary branding and marketing design, and develop skills in typographic/editorial design, print, website, social media, and motion graphic design.

We have links with a number of design agencies around the UK and can often offer placement opportunities.

Study Reasons

Graphic design is about the visual communication of ideas. You will develop your skills with a range of industry-focused design projects

Many graduates from this course have gone on to have success in the design industry. Our alumni include lead visual designers with Google and Apple, as well as senior designers and design directors at Nike, the BBC, Sky, and ITV.

In addition to specific design skills, you'll also have gained transferable skills, such as the ability to understand your audience, solve problems, and communicate.
