Requirements

Postgraduate entry requirements

Please see our general postgraduate entry requirements for detail or use our online postgraduate prospectus to check the entry, requirements for the course you are interested in.

Some, but not all, postgraduate programmes require your undergraduate degree to have a related major. Some postgraduate programmes may require work experience in a relevant field or at a certain level.

If you are unsure whether your qualification will be suitable, please email our International Recruitment team.

For entry to a Kent postgraduate degree programme (Master's), Georgian students typically need to have completed a Bakalavris Khariskhi (Bachelor degree) or Umaghlesi Ganatlebis Diplomi (Specialist Diploma) at an authorised institution. Exact requirements will depend on the postgraduate degree you are applying for and the institution you have studied at.

For programmes that require a 2:1 we usually ask for a final grade of at least 81%, B, 4.0/5.0 or 3.2/4.0

For programmes that require a 2:2 we usually ask for a final grade of at least 71%, C, 3.5/4.0 or 2.7/4.0

MBA

For details of our MBA programme, please see the MBA course page.

PhD

For entry to a Kent PhD programme, students from Georgia typically need to have completed a Magistris Khariskhi (Masters degree) at an authorised institution with a final grade of at least 81%, B, 4/5 or 3.2/4.0. Students who have not completed a thesis as part of their degree will need to show evidence of previous research experience. If you would like to pursue a PhD at Kent, you should visit the relevant department website and our find a supervisor page to identify potential supervisors for your research and thesis. You are encouraged to then make direct contact with the appropriate academic to discuss your research proposal.

Degree Overview

Our CMI and IOE&IT-accredited MSc International Business and Management course is the most far-reaching of our postgraduate courses, as it provides a well-rounded knowledge of global management theories and practices. Students will receive CMI L7 Certificate in Strategic Management and Leadership Practice on completion of their degree.

Our graduates gain the transferable and desirable skills of cross-cultural management, problem solving, adaptability and decision making that they can apply to top-calibre management roles in a variety of business environments and functions nationally or globally.

You'll learn an overview of global strategy, global value chains, international accounting and organisational behaviour, managing the multinational enterprise, within human resource management in a global context and international accounting for decision making. You will finish your master's with a detailed report with the support of a dedicated expert supervisor.
