Additional information

Where do you see yourself in 5 years' time? Are you aiming for a specific career role, or do you simply know your strengths lie in business and management? As an aspiring entrepreneur or business leader, you may have a business idea you want to turn into reality, or strong leadership skills you want to utilise to help an established company grow. Achieving a business management bachelor's degree allows you to develop the knowledge, skills and business connections required to access global career opportunities and narrow your field of interest.

Our full-time bachelor's degree in business management is designed to provide students with an interdisciplinary, internationally oriented management education. The BSc Business Management will teach you how to address challenges in all economic and administrative fields of activity. The programme prepares students for a professional career in a wide variety of business fields.

As a graduate of the BSc Business Management programme, you will be in high demand by corporations, consultancy firms, and financial institutions. Your expertise will be sought after in diverse sectors such as manufacturing, finance, consulting, public service, and the creative industries, where a deep understanding of business practices is essential.

From Foundations to Future: Your Business Management Journey

The full-time bachelor's degree programme comprises a standard period of study of six semesters. The curriculum includes a 'mobility window' in the 5th semester: a semester reserved for you to study abroad, undertake further modules with an applied focus as part of career development or to do an internship.

For the bachelor's programmes, the total student workload for the courses is 180 ECTS credits.

Build the foundation from which you can launch your career, with any one of five diverse and in-demand specialisms*. The bachelor's in management offers specialisation options in the areas of Marketing, Logistics, Entrepreneurship, Human Resources or Finance. Modules are structured to suit your needs and clearly focus on specific areas of specialisation to give you the opportunity to acquire a qualification profile that will dramatically enhance your success in the business field. You'll also have the opportunity to spend a semester abroad – choose from a selection of highly international cities such as London, Shanghai, and Singapore. You can combine this with an internship or business project with global companies such as Amazon or Alibaba so that you'll be ready to kick-start your career as soon as you graduate.

Students starting online will have the option to complete the programme on-campus in Germany seamlessly.

Accreditations

The degree programme has been awarded the quality seal of the Accreditation Council Foundation. The Accreditation Council Foundation is a joint institution of the federal states of Germany for quality assurance in study and teaching at German universities.
