Additional information

Degree Overview

Recognized as one of the top advertising and digital branding programs in the country, the advertising major in the S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications helps students to become “big thinkers” and future advertising leaders. The curriculum provides an interdisciplinary approach to learning, introducing students to both the theory and practice of the advertising business through project-based experiences using real clients.

Study Reasons

Benefit from an interdisciplinary approach to learning that introduces students to both theory and practice.

Be part of a program with a tradition of winning top honors in national and international college competitions.

Study with faculty members who bring extensive experience and scholarly activity to their academic work.
