Degree Overview

This course is relevant to students if they are looking to develop their career in private banking, portfolio management or the professional management of securities and assets. It is also ideal if you want to move into the investment and brokering side of the financial sector.

This option allows you to specialise in investment management and gain practical skills required in the industry. You gain deeper knowledge and practical skills in analysing and evaluating securities, companies, industries and economies; designing investment strategies, constructing, managing and assessing the performance of investment portfolios.
