Overview

LLB (Hons) Law with Business is a three year full-time degree, where you will develop an understanding of key legal topics and business skills. This degree will prepare you in part for the Solicitors Qualifying Examination (SQE1) or Bar Practice Course (to qualify as a barrister). You'll also study a range of business modules that will make you employment-ready if you want to move into a career outside the legal sector.

With our LLB Law with Business degree, you'll gain valuable real-world skills and experience through your study. Mock trials, law simulations and pro bono work will ensure you graduate with a practical understanding of law and business. You will learn valuable transferable skills that could help in various professional careers within the finance, banking and legal sectors.
