Degree Overview

Learn the real-life application of accounting and finance while developing knowledge in data and technology. As part of this programme, you will study modules developed in partnership with global accounting employers. The core accountancy modules are aligned with ACCA Applied Knowledge and Applied Skills papers, which helps you to avoid double assessments by studying our ACCA Approved Content and sitting BPP University assessments. The BSc modules focus on modern business, technology and digital skills that help you add value from the start.

Please note: To apply for this course, students need to be registered with the ACCA (this is at the student's own responsibility and cost).
