Additional information

About the pathway

The course is full-time, with 12 – 15 hours of learning (lectures, seminars and workshops) each week on campus.

You'll be taught by dedicated specialist and international/English language tutors, who are passionate about what they teach in high-spec facilities.

You will study a combination of subject-specific business modules alongside academic business skills modules that will focus on teaching you the English language, study skills, employability and academic skills necessary to successfully pass the course.
