Requirements

At DGHE, we review applications individually, considering each applicant's unique circumstances. Whether you hold a UK qualification, possess work experience or have obtained qualifications from overseas, we are open to discussing your application and exploring potential pathways for admission.

Examples of accepted qualifications

- a pass in a BTEC HND in a relevant field
- or a Foundation Degree in a relevant field
- or other Level 5 UK or Overseas qualifications in a related field

Non-standard qualifications & Mature applicants

• We encourage mature students who are 21 years of age or older to apply. At DGHE, we value mature students' diverse experiences and perspectives. While some entry requirements may still apply for this programme, we welcome applicants with relevant work experiences and carefully consider each one individually.

English Language Requirements:

IELTS 5.5 / 4/C in English GCSE / Functional Skills Level 2

Students who have studied in a country where English is not the primary language will be required to meet our English Language Requirements.

However, if you have previously studied a BTEC HND in an English-speaking country, you will be exempt from taking the English test when applying for a Top-up course.

Additional information

BSc (Hons) Criminology and Criminal Justice (Top-up)

programme is delivered in partnership with the University of Gloucestershire.

The university is proud that 95% of Gloucestershire graduates are in employment or further study within 6 months of graduating (University of Gloucestershire DHLE 2016/17).

The course is designed for students who already have a Foundation Degree, HND, or other qualification in a subject such as criminology, uniformed public services or criminal justice and who want to follow a programme of study that takes specialist knowledge and skills to a level relevant for a graduate career in this area.

*This course is delivered two days per week or two evenings and Saturdays. In addition, learners are required to attend a personal tutor meeting twice per semester.
