Additional information

Our Business English Course is great for anyone that wants to use English for work. Many professionals and business students take this course to improve their skills and prospects. Our course will help you develop your grammar, accuracy and vocabulary in the mornings. Then in the afternoons, you learn about English for business communication.

By the end of the course you should feel more confident answering business emails, telephone calls, messages, negotiating and presenting in English.

Classes start in the mornings and finish in the afternoons. Students will get 21 hours of lesson time per week. Regular homework and in class tests will be given.

- Skills: Business vocabulary, communication skills and grammatical accuracy
