Offering a B.F.A. with concentrations in Acting, Musical Theatre, Directing/Producing, or Design/Technology & Management, and minors in Music, Dance, and Theatre, we provide diverse pathways to success in the industry.

Our pre-professional program, steered by experienced faculty, aligns your education with your career goals. We champion talent and dedication over seniority, providing leadership opportunities that build real-world skills. We cultivate an environment of growth and exploration, encouraging students to experiment across all theatre facets. This approach equips students with versatility, a crucial attribute for a thriving career in the dynamic world of theatre.

Concentrations

The B.F.A. concentrations allow for just that: a concentrated study of one professional area. The B.F.A. is responsive to the needs of the professional areas of acting, directing, design/technical theatre and theatre management, and musical theatre. Unlike our conservatory competitors, the B.F.A. is firmly situated within a liberal arts university, and this is one of our program's strongest assets.
