Degree overview:

This 36-credit hour Master of Arts program provides graduate students with a general academic foundation in the field of psychology and fills a gap in the training and changing professional preparation in human service organizations. It also may be suited to those who may seek to further their study at the doctoral level. The program offers a wide variety of required and elective courses that provide students with the skills and resources needed to examine and understand the broader context of a person's life – family, school, work groups, and other significant systems.

A degree in Social Science and Humanities will help you gain a deep understanding of society, culture and human nature. Degree choices include African-American Studies, Classics, History, International Relations, Languages, Linguistics, Philosophy, Politics, Sociology, and Theology & Religious Studies. Graduates could find jobs as:

- Psychologist
- Historian
- Archaeologist
- Economist
- Politician
- Anthropologist
- Social Worker
- Social Researcher
- Criminologist
- International Relations Officer
- Theologist
- Translator/ Interpreter
