

Birkbeck University of London

Film & Media

Study details

Course type: Undergraduate

Degree: BA

Study mode: Full time

Duration: 36 Month

Cost of study

Cost : 17 620 EUR

Reg. fee : EUR

Scholarship : The scholarship will be applied as a discount to the tuition fee for the first year of your full-time master's course, to bring it in line with the Home tuition fee amount. As part of our commitment to enhancing the global reach of Birkbeck, we are announcing our Global Future Scholarship to support access to postgraduate master's study from all EU member countries, and Brazil. We recognise the importance and value in having a diverse student population from across the world and we're pleased to present this additional option of financial support.

Intake/s

Jan, Apr, Oct

Requirements

If English is not your first language or you have not previously studied in English, our usual requirement is the equivalent of an International English Language Testing System (IELTS Academic Test) score of 6.5, with not less than 6.0 in each of the sub-tests. We also accept other English language tests.

Accommodation

Provided by partner agencies

Speciality

On successfully graduating from this BA Film and Media, you will have gained an array of important transferable skills, including:

- the ability to work effectively as part of a team
- high-level oral and written communication skills in English
- fundamental skills in research
- skills in evaluating and assessing different types of information.

This degree will help prepare you for a career path in roles including:

film/video editor
curator/programmer in a variety of media and cultural heritage organisations digital content provider and creator screenwriting and script-editing roles in film/TV in film and media marketing, publicity material production and advertising web editor and designer for film/media organisations and projects media education roles (teaching, consultancy).

Additional information

Building on Birkbeck's radical reputation in film and screen media, this BA Film and Media is ideal if you are looking to gain knowledge of film and media from different periods and parts of the world and are keen to develop your creative practice skills in film/media content creation and screenwriting.

Why choose this course?

Classes are run by world-leading academics and industry professionals with links to organisations such as the BFI, BBC and Disney.

The course takes a unique, interdisciplinary approach to equip you with multiple skillsets essential for employment both in the media and cultural heritage sectors. You will be offered mentoring, networking and placement opportunities in film, TV and creative media industries through our partner Film Buddy.

This degree is ideal if you consider yourself a film/media practitioner seeking to enhance your career opportunities and deepen your understanding of the wide variety of forms, styles and histories of film and media through both academic study and creative practice.

If you would like to hone your skills in specific areas of film and media, the course gives you the chance to tailor your studies so that you can exit with a BA Film and Media Practice, BA Film and Media with Screenwriting or BA Film, Media and Language.