Degree Overview

This program is offered by the School of Global Studies and Languages, where students engage with diverse cultures, languages, histories, and ways of life from around the world. Graduates leave with the skills necessary for successful careers in the global sector.

Points of Interest

- Get a taste of music, art, philosophy, and literature while building your language skills through on-campus course work.
- Experience the magic of study abroad programs in Austria, Denmark, Finland, Germany, Norway or Sweden. Ski, take a dip in a frozen lake, research your ancestors, learn culture and idiom from native speakers—all while receiving UO credit.
- Join the department's weekly German conversation group—Stammtisch—in an informal setting at a nearby restaurant. The group includes native Germans from the Eugene area.
- Every other year, the department produces a German play. Past performances have included plays by Bertolt Brecht and Arthur Schnitzler.
