Course overview

Our Master of Business Administration in Leadership is designed for professionals seeking to advance their careers in leadership or entrepreneurs looking to start their new ventures. This postgraduate course provides a well-rounded education guided by subject matter experts — helping students build their business acumen, leadership ability and other key skills in business administration. The course prepares individuals to excel in significant roles within leading organisations and make strategic decisions that drive success.

Students will be provided with a comprehensive understanding of both business fundamentals and leadership principles, equipping them with the necessary skills to manage teams, drive innovation, and apply new ideas to take businesses to the next level.

Through theoretical knowledge, practical case studies, and experiential learning, students gain insights into various leadership styles, communication techniques, and organisational dynamics.

With a Masters of Business Administration (Leadership) from GBS Malta, graduates are well-prepared to take on leadership roles across industries, inspiring and motivating others to achieve organisational success. Moreover, it will help students expand their business knowledge, analytical, problem-solving, critical thinking, and communication abilities.

Career paths after the course:

- Senior international management roles in all sectors and across industries
- International management consultancy
- Strategic roles in any sector, industry or market
