Additional information

Degree Overview

Illustrators arouse curiosity, tell stories, and illuminate issues. Our bachelor of fine arts (B.F.A.) degree program balances imagination and self-expression with refinement of skills in drawing, painting, digital media, and research.

Our illustration majors take classes in traditional, digital, and alternate media to develop competency with techniques. You'll study conceptual thinking, research methods, and how to communicate narrative while developing familiarity with illustration history and the contemporary field. You'll be encouraged to develop your unique vision and aesthetic, with guidance towards your professional goals.
