Foundation year - A unique experience

Affiliated to the UE, the Foundation year offers a customised programme for students at the university campus in Iserlohn. Our one-year pre-studies programme is the first step towards your study – career in Germany. After succeeding the Foundation Year at University of Europe for Applied Sciences you will likely have access to your chosen field of study at one of the (public) German universities. If you prefer to get a direct access to a German university, you can check the evaluation of your school certificate for Germany on the website Anabin.
