Degree Overview

International Marketing is the application of marketing principles to satisfy the diverse needs and wants of different people living across the world – marketing as a business discipline is constantly evolving, due to the ever-developing range of digital channels and solutions available to target, communicate, and engage with customers.

Our MSc International Marketing programme covers the traditional founding concepts and theories of marketing, and is a course suited for both those who want to build on their first-degree in a business-related subject, or those seeking to acquire new academic and practical skills having completed a bachelor's degree in a subject different to business. Across the duration of the master's programme, you will develop knowledge in a wide range of areas, including Digital Marketing, Marketing Strategy, Brand Management and Social Media, preparing you as best possible for graduate employment.
