Requirements

Postgraduate entry requirements

Please see our general postgraduate entry requirements for detail or use our online postgraduate prospectus to check the entry, requirements for the course you are interested in.

Some, but not all, postgraduate programmes require your undergraduate degree to have a related major. Some postgraduate programmes may require work experience in a relevant field or at a certain level.

If you are unsure whether your qualification will be suitable, please email our International Recruitment team.

For entry to a Kent postgraduate degree programme (Master's), Georgian students typically need to have completed a Bakalavris Khariskhi (Bachelor degree) or Umaghlesi Ganatlebis Diplomi (Specialist Diploma) at an authorised institution. Exact requirements will depend on the postgraduate degree you are applying for and the institution you have studied at.

For programmes that require a 2:1 we usually ask for a final grade of at least 81%, B, 4.0/5.0 or 3.2/4.0

For programmes that require a 2:2 we usually ask for a final grade of at least 71%, C, 3.5/4.0 or 2.7/4.0

MBA

For entry to a Kent PhD programme, students from Georgia typically need to have completed a Magistris Khariskhi (Masters degree) at an authorised institution with a final grade of at least 81%, B, 4/5 or 3.2/4.0. Students who have not completed a thesis as part of their degree will need to show evidence of previous research experience. If you would like to pursue a PhD at Kent, you should visit the relevant department website and our find a supervisor page to identify potential supervisors for your research and thesis. You are encouraged to then make direct contact with the appropriate academic to discuss your research proposal.

Degree Overview

Are you a transformational leader, with organisational skills and the ability to manage conflicting tasks and pressures?

Project Management is ever-growing and evolving as it is an imperative function to improve efficiency and transparency in modern businesses. A project manager (PM) is responsible for the day-to-day management of specific projects that have definite outcomes, time limits, and set budgets. The role of the Project Manager is evolving from day-to-day activities but also requires inspirational leadership.

You'll learn the capstone theories of Project Management including corporate strategy, leadership and change management and areas vital to a career in Project Management such as Risk Management, Agile Project Management and the Project Management Office. You will end your Master's with a detailed report on an independent research project with a dedicated expert supervisor. You will be given the opportunity to apply your expertise in a critical analysis of real data from real businesses.
