Additional information

Studying Business and Management at the University of Europe for Applied Sciences (UE) means getting taught in a professional field that is exciting, diverse and internationally relevant. We combine the classic teaching of Business and Management Studies with the topics of tomorrow: digital modules, soft skills and interdisciplinary teaching strengthen your vision and are at the centre of teaching at UE. In addition to entrepreneurial strategic thinking, managers and leaders must also have social skills as well as the ability to motivate a team. From day one, you will not only learn theoretical knowledge but also actively apply it in practical projects and benefit from the opportunity to acquire further additional qualifications through our acceleration courses offered by companies such as IBM and Amazon exclusively for UE students. UE brings out courageous and creative minds who can later lead a forward-looking company in the international economy.
