Course description

The field of International Management is a programme taught fully in English. It give the opportunity to fulfil the management-sphere education to people, who are already experienced workers, but also to those who would like to work at international market in the future. This programme allows to improve business English which is crucial within the international cooperation.

The classes are held by the experienced academic teachers, but also by people who are experienced in this field – workers from companies of different trades. Meetings are held only on weekends – that allows WSB Merito students to combine studies and work.

This programme includes various management' aspects, but also envelopes managers' qualifications. This programme is aiming into preparing modern manager who will be able to take up challenges on a different markets.

Subjects are planned into 4-hours blocks – workshops. Within the programme, we have planned 3-semester-lasting MA seminar and the possibility of mastering the second foreign language thanks to the Rosette Stone platform.
