Additional information

Degree Overview

Suppose you want to make a difference by improving high school-aged children's health, well-being and physical literacy. In that case, the Health & Physical Education degree, a four-year specialist teaching qualification, is a perfect choice.

In addition to the compulsory Health Science courses, you will complete nine general education courses to give you a well-rounded teaching qualification.

This degree will provide you with essential knowledge, and practical skills to enable you to teach others to manage their health and well-being through physical activity. This degree is also available with a primary education focus.

The Bachelor of Health & Physical Education (Secondary) degree is an accredited initial teacher education program (AITSL). Graduates are eligible for professional accreditation with the Teacher Registration Board of WA to teach in Western Australian schools.
